

Toward New Seasons

Tommy finished seminary last December, but he was able to walk in the graduation ceremony earlier this month! Over the past six years, as a couple we've been working towards coming back to the mission field. For us this is a huge milestone on that journey. Praise God for his faithfulness!

UPDATES

Yumi will be teaching at the Japanese Holiness Churches Summer Conference !

Yumi's last big job in the United States! She will talk about healthy spirituality. Please pray that this will be an opportunity for local pastors and church members to be empowered by the Holy Spirit.
